

Sr. Stephanie Termini, ASCJ

Sr. Stephanie Termini, ASCJ of Hamden, died Monday, February 27, 2017 at Sacred Heart Manor. She was born in Kansas City, MO, January 30, 1917 to the late Frank and Josephine Romano Termini. She entered the Apostles of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in New Haven, July 16, 1943, professed her first Vows August 24, 1946, and her perpetual vows on August 23, 1951. In her 70 years as a vowed Apostle of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, Sr. Stephanie ministered as teacher and principal at both the elementary and secondary school levels. In Connecticut, she taught at St. Michael School, New Haven and touched the lives of many young women as a dedicated and vivacious teacher at Sacred Heart Academy for 12 years. In addition she served in schools in Missouri, Pennsylvania, and California. In 2008 Sr. Stephanie retired to Sacred Heart Manor where she was a joyful presence to both the sisters and clients at the Clelian Adult Day Center. As an Apostle Adorer at Sacred Manor she continued her ministry of daily prayer for her Sisters and their missions, her family, former students and friends, and all those who asked for her prayers. Sr. Stephanie earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Political Science from St. Louis University in Missouri and a Master of Arts degree in Education/Political Science from Fairfield University in Connecticut. Predeceased by her parents, her brothers, Jasper, Joseph and George, and her sisters, Rosemary Leone, Veta Spero, Sr. Angelita Termini, CSJ, Josephine and Mary Termini, she is survived by several nieces and nephews, as well as her Apostle sisters, her religious family.
